Why Lumber Plus?

Because we hold more materials in stock than any other lumber retailer.

We know how important it is to have just what you need exactly when you need it. That's why we invest in stock more than any other lumber retailer in the United States or Canada. We keep three huge warehouses fully loaded with some of the finest tropical lumber in the world, together with all the best brands out there, such as Trex, Azek, and Fiberon.

3 fully loaded
warehouses

Take advantage of our three branches across North America and rest assured knowing we have your job covered — always.

New containers
coming in every week

Every time you call us, we'll have something different for you. From a variety of profiles and sizes to brand new collections, we're constantly expanding our inventory.

Sustainably managed forests only

At Lumber Plus, we have complex systems in place to ensure that all of the lumber we sell is harvested in accordance with the most stringent sustainability standards.
